

The Latest Creations in Baby Carriages

1917
models
Advance showing

A few styles are shown in our windows this week.

B. W. Hooker & Co.
Vermont's Largest House Furnishers

TALK OF THE TOWN

Buy green cut bone at Kempton's Mills. Sugar 14 pounds for 90c, special for Saturday only. R. P. Shadrouh, 50 Brook street.

Mrs. Martha Calef-White, electric needle specialist, will be at Miss Canning's Toilet Parlor, Barre, Saturday, Jan. 27. Boston office, 2 Park square.—adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Drown, who have been in New York as visitors during the past few days, returned to the city this morning.

L. O. O. L. M. U. will hold their regular meeting in K. of C. hall Friday evening, Jan. 26, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Hunt, Search, Seek Where You Will No Store in Town or Out of Town Undersells Us

Here in your own neighborhood drug store, handy, within reach, you can buy anything that any downtown, in-town or out-of-town drug store sells, and at just as low prices as are possible to quote in this day. No longer is it necessary to go out in the slush and cold. Here is your own drug store on the other end of your telephone wire, easy to locate, easy to reach, quick to serve.

We Meet All Prices
Ask Us First

Drown's Drug Store
48 No. Main Street—The Store of Right Prices

Cummings & Lewis Wild Cherry Expectorant for

Many sick spells begin with coughs and colds.

—And they will end there if you take a bottle of our Wild Cherry Expectorant. It relieves hoarseness, sore throat and other troubles incidental to cold and damp weather.

NOTICE—Wild Cherry Expectorant contains no opium derivatives or chloroform. Therefore it is safe to give to children.

Cummings & Lewis
Druggist, 54 North Main St., Barre
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded

FRESH FISH

HADDOCK
COD
FLOUNDERS
HERRING

HALIBUT
MACKEREL
SALMON
SMELTS

SALT FISH

PACKAGE COD
MACKEREL, SALMON

COD STRIPS
COD BITS

SMOKED FISH

FINNAN HADDIES
HERRING, BLOATERS

HALIBUT
KIPPERED HERRING

Sauer Kraut ..... 3 lbs. for 25c
Sweet Relish, per lb. .... 15c
Warner's Spaghetti and Macaroni... 3 pkgs. for 25c
Dexter's Bread ..... 10c

Houghton & Robins

TALK OF THE TOWN

See those skirt values at Abbott's. Ladies, read Clarkson's big ad., page 6. Big dance in Howland hall Friday evening, Carroll's orchestra.—adv.

For Sale—Two sleighs and a Packard organ. Apply at 29 Academy street.

The very latest thing in millinery, hats and ribbon hats. Reasonable prices. At Mrs. Carroll's.

Ballet slippers in all colors for "The Wishing Ring." Special price for this occasion. Shea's Shoe Store.

The Altruists will meet with Mrs. E. C. Glysson 20 Perry street, Friday afternoon at the usual hour.

Mrs. Roy Demeritt and Mrs. V. L. Perkins of Waterbury were among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

Harry L. Ford of Burlington is in the city for two days in the interest of the sale in progress at E. E. Clarkson & Co.'s store.

Miss Gertrude Mackie of Maple Grove street left this afternoon for Burlington, where she will visit until after the week end.

The mission circle of the Universalist church will meet with Mrs. B. A. Eastman to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Jerry H. Howe of Springfield arrived in the city last evening and will spend several days as the guest of friends on Blackwell street.

Miss Lottie Hunt, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lawrence, and at Arthur LeBaron's, South Barre, has returned to her home in Concord, N. H.

An adjourned meeting of Col. J. B. Mead circle, No. 1, Ladies of the G. A. R., will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Installation of officers and refreshments.

Mrs. H. B. Hanson, who has been the guest of friends on Camp street while passing several days in Barre, her former home, returned to-day to East Berkshire.

Mrs. Abbie M. Pierce of Lenox, Mass., arrived in the city last night to visit her sister, Mrs. Sarah Ball, of Hill street, who has been dangerously ill during the past few days.

Rev. P. M. McKenna of Summer street has returned from Rutland, where he attended the funeral of Rev. Thomas McCarthy, curate of St. Augustine's church in Montpelier.

Angelo Bianchi, formerly of this place, but now of Montpelier, left yesterday for Alta, N. M., where he is to spend the remaining months of the winter. Mr. Bianchi expects to return to Montpelier in the spring.

Marrion's dinner service is unexcelled in the city, and if you are a transient looking for wholesome food, our 25-cent dinner will appeal to you. We specialize in preparing business men's lunches. Remember to dine at Marrion's, at 120 North Main street. A few more regular borders can be accommodated.—adv.

A regular meeting of St. John's court, No. 522, C. O. F., will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at which a joint initiation of a large class of candidates from Barre, Montpelier and Granvilleville will be held. The work will be in charge of the Granvilleville degree team. After the meeting a buffet lunch will be served.

Miss Ethel Elizabeth Verner, formerly of 21 Warren street, Barre, and Elwyn Allan Bailey of Derry, N. H., were married at the latter place Saturday, Jan. 20, by Rev. Mr. Enslin, pastor of the Derry Baptist church, leaving soon after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Manchester, N. H. Mrs. Bailey, who is well known here, left Barre June 10, 1916, for Derry, and on June 13 of that year began work in the Derry shoe office, continuing in that position until the day of her marriage. Her husband is employed by the same firm. Mr. Bailey had been married before and has a son five years old. They will reside in Derry.

Eighteen members of the Presbyterian Bible class enjoyed a snowshoe hike up the rugged slopes of Cobble hill last evening and were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst. Mild weather and underfoot conditions were wholly favorable to the outing and the trip up the hill was made in good time. At the Parkhurst home there were refreshments of coffee, cake, doughnuts and fruit and before the descent began, there was an impromptu program of singing and instrumental music. The committee in charge of the outing consisted of Miss Rose Phillips, Miss Theresa Duncan, William J. McDonald and James Phillip.

The social committee of Merbo's academy has organized its forces for a club sleigh ride to Williamstown to-morrow evening, when more than 100 young people of this city and Granvilleville will be given an outing. Three barges and a three-seated sleigh have been chartered and the expedition will begin at the junction of Sumner and Seminary streets at 6 o'clock, when all north end members of the club are asked to assemble. South end patrons of the club by local Sunday school workers.

Mr. Pearce is the associate general secretary, dean of the training school and superintendent of the adult division of the International Sunday School association. It is stated that he is a lawyer by profession and has been connected with the Sunday school movement in America for many years. His address before Barre Sunday school workers is calculated to throw light on the workings of an association which influences 173,459 Sunday schools, 1,800,000 teachers and officers and an aggregate membership of 17,000,000 persons. The meeting at the Heddington church will open at 7:30 o'clock.

Barre bowlers representing the Merbo alleys sked out a margin ever so slight in their match with two rollers from the Imperial alleys in Montpelier last evening, the competition taking place on the local lanes. Bob Hawkins of the Imperial team, with 1,034, had the largest aggregate score, with C. Colombo of Barre a close second. With a string pinfall of 131 Colombo won the individual honor and the totals showed that Barre, with 2,017 pins to its credit, was leading by 17 pins, the Montpelier team having averaged exactly 100 pins to the string in 20 strings. The Barre team: Blair Marriana, 88, 88, 113, 104, 106, 105, 97, 100, 101, 80, for 988; Colombo, 106, 90, 92, 131, 80, 112, 102, 120, 100, 87, for 1,029; Montpelier: Hartwell, 80, 91, 96, 80, 113, 93, 91, 111, 110, 88, for 966; Hawkins, 129, 95, 85, 106, 93, 111, 112, 99, 117, 87 for 1,034. Totals: Barre, 2,017; Montpelier, 2,003. Arrangements have been made for the next match in the two-team series to be played on the Imperial alleys.

A. P. ABBOTT &amp; CO.

A. P. ABBOTT &amp; CO.

A. P. ABBOTT &amp; CO.

A. P. ABBOTT &amp; CO.

Stock-Taking Sale

You should go over our Remnant Table before we close our store Saturday night.

Just keep in mind that all early purchases will cost you less than a little later.

You can buy Muslin Underwear 25 per cent. better now than when spring stock arrives. You can buy now at old prices, which is very, very cheap, considering future prices.

Hosiery and Underwear at prices to-day will look good to you later.

Ladies' and Gents' Sweaters will cost you about $1.00 each less now than later.

A good time now to buy Silks and Wool Dress Goods for spring wear. A large line bought early—in fact most of these in plain colors are all last season's Silk in foreign dye.

Ladies' and Gents' Umbrellas. These were bought last summer before the price advanced. You can now save from 50c to $1.00 on a good Umbrella and 25c on a cheap one.

There are several good things in our Bargain Basement. Later we are to make several changes in this Basement. We are to make it a better place to do lots of your trading on odd things, odd lots at less than the market price.

The first of next week we open up in our Bargain Basement a lot of Children's and Ladies' Medium Grade Muslin Underwear at BARGAIN PRICES.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

Special clean-up on suits at Abbott's. Mr. and Mrs. James J. Travers of Washington street are the parents of a daughter born Sunday, Jan. 21.

Andes ranges and heaters; repairs for all kinds of ranges, fire clay and stoveboards. E. A. Brindle, Depot square.

L. D. Roy, who recently completed his duties as treasurer of the Northfield Trust Co., has moved with Mrs. Roy to the Smith stock farm on the Williamstown road.

The annual celebration of the Burns club will be held in Clan Gordon hall Friday, Jan. 26, at 7:30 p. m. Every member is requested to attend. Per order president, J. Hogg, Sec.

E. P. Sloyd of East Montpelier was a business visitor in the city yesterday, while on his way to Los Angeles, Cal., where he has secured employment.

Mr. Sloyd, who has been at his home in East Montpelier during the past two years, was formerly of Los Angeles.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Special values in coats at Abbott's. Ladies, read Clarkson's big ad., page 6. Big dance in Howland hall Friday evening, Carroll's orchestra.—adv.

Big shipment men's work shoes arrived Wednesday. Sewed and nailed soles. Special, $2.49 a pair, at Shea's.

Howard L. Smith of Woodville, N. H., arrived in the city yesterday and will commence work in one of the North Barre stonesheds next week.

Luther Lougee, who has been visiting friends in the city for a few days, returned yesterday to Burlington, where he is enrolled as a student in the University of Vermont.

Chief Sinclair and Deputy Sheriffs, G. L. Morris and H. J. Slayton of this city, Deputy Sheriff Dennis Donahue of Granvilleville, and Deputy Sheriff Joseph Laverry, a railroad inspector, left Barre this morning for Burlington, where they are attending the annual convention of the Vermont Sheriffs' association.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Remnant sale at Abbott's. Don't miss the big bargains Shea is offering for Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. H. S. Parks of King street left this morning for Randolph, where she is to spend several days as the guest of Mrs. N. X. Morse.

William Goodwin of Burlington returned to his home last evening, after spending the past week in Barre and vicinity on a business trip.

Thomas Garrity, who has been employed in a machine shop in Bridgeport, Conn., during the past few months, returned yesterday to Barre.

John C. Edwards of Chicago, who has been visiting relatives in Westerville during the past ten days, passed through the city yesterday, while en route to his home.

Charles Flint, who has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Flint of Washington, during the past few days, returned to the city yesterday.

One of the largest loads of dressed pork ever sold to a Barre butcher, and especially since the present high and continually changing price of meat, was brought into the city yesterday from over the hills from Stowe by S. A. Stebbins and sold to the H. J. Smith market.

The load consisted of 30 hogs and amounted to about two tons in weight. The animals were all raised by Mr. Stebbins, who is one of Stowe's big pork raisers.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Stock-taking sale at Abbott's. F. L. Currier of Bethel arrived in the city yesterday and will spend several days visiting friends on Pearl street.

J. J. Kennedy arrived in the city last evening from Burlington, and will spend several days in the city on business.

All interested in "The Wishing Ring" entertainment should read the People's Shoe Store ad. on the last page of this paper.

Rev. Ralph F. Lowe of St. Johnsbury, who has been spending several days as the guest of friends in Barre and Williamstown, returned to his home last evening.

All Macabees planning to go on the sleighride to Plainfield Wednesday, Jan. 31, call one of the following numbers, 418-4, 48-W or 228-13, not later than Saturday, Jan. 27.

Dennis Trombly, who recently sold his farm in Williamstown, was a business visitor in the city yesterday while making preparations for leaving at some time during the latter part of the week for Holyoke, Mass., where he is to remain during the remainder of the week.

A party of the Gospel Village Snow-shoe Hikers' club made the first of a series of weekly hikes to the Lyon shack on the east hill last evening. The young people, upon their arrival at the shack, prepared an oyster supper. The evening was spent in playing games. Miss Ruth Waterman of upper Washington street acted as chaperone.

GOOD VALUES

TRY RIZON, THE NEW BAKING POWDER

Cost less than other high-grade Baking Powders, takes less in quantity—only a level teaspoonful for a recipe. Gives better results. A beautiful, board-bound, 80-page cook book FREE with each pound. Not a cheap cook book, but something you will be glad to keep.

Rizon comes in three sizes, 1/4-lb., 1/2-lb., 1-lb., 10c, 18c, 35c. Every can guaranteed. Use half of the can; if you are not satisfied, bring it back and we refund the price.

If you like Fish for supper, try Smelts. They are now at the finest price, 20c per lb.

HALIBUT, per lb.	25c
SALMON, fresh-caught, per lb.	35c
SMELTS, fresh-caught, per lb.	20c
MACKEREL, each	25c and 35c
BONED HADDOCK, per lb.	18c
WHOLE HADDOCK OR SLICED, per lb.	15c
STEAK COD, per lb.	15c and 18c
FLOUNDERS, per lb.	10c
HADDOCK ROES, per lb.	20c
HERRINGS, each	7c, 4 for 25c
CLAMS, per pint	20c; 1/2 peck, 30c
SHRIMP, per pint	25c
OYSTERS, per pint	25c; per dozen, 25c
LOBSTERS—and try our Horse Radish.

The F. D. Ladd Company

The Smith & Cumings Co.
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"